There are two events coming up that may be of interest to parents of children with additional needs. Please see the posters below for information.

Forget about Pop Idol, BGT, The Voice, The X Factor, Strictly, The Great British Bake-off and Sewing Idol – if you want talent, just look at our own pupils. On Friday, we finished off Children's Mental Health Week 2025 with an amazing talent show. Dancers, gymnasts, footballers, artists, singers and musicians showed off their amazing skills in front of the whole school. The finalists all won through from their class heats and the top three acts in the final were:

1st - Georgia from Year 5 for her moving sign language performance of a JJ Hella song.

2nd - Jacob from Year 6 for playing Beethoven's Für Elise on the piano.

3rd - Jak from Year 5 for singing an Ed Sheeran song.

All three took away a glittering 'Lockwood Oscar' but we must say congratulations to everyone who took part and our amazing audience who clapped and cheered for every act. A special word for our judging panel of Mrs Lunn, Mikey and Archie who had an unenviable task in choosing the winners.

The theme for this year's Children's Mental Health Week was 'Know yourself – grow yourself' and the children did various activities over the week exploring what this means.
